

Commanders notes

This is my last letter I am glad to have served as commander. We did have a very productive year with the help of everyone we can have better next year. I will be ready to help where needed to help the new officers and continue with bingo as the manager we do have a very good group of bingo workers with new members join us on Wednesdays.

We need to get behind your new officers and help them active the goals they want to set for the chapter in the year ahead. They want to have more get togethers for everyone, family gathering at the chapter.

The chapter will be presenting the plaques to the Fountain Police Department and the El Paso County Sheriffs Department and have pictures with all receipts of the awards. We will have combined meeting with the installation of officers both men and ladies. Will have dinner at 12:00noon RSVP by April 6th to the chapter by phone or email phone (719) 391-7794 email moph423@gmail.com. I want to thank you all again for your help while I had my surgeries they are behind me for a while. We as a chapter have the award for the ROTC/JROTC coming up starting in April and May any one interested in helping is welcome to hand out the packets to the cadet at the schools. RSVP FOR THE DINNER BY APRIL 6th at chapter (719)391-7794 or email moph423@gmail.com
